

Education

Furtherance of Education for Apprentices Motion

Congress Notes:

That over the past number of years the increase within the trades industry with regards to Ireland.

Congress Further Notes:

That with the economic downturn many of these apprentices have been left with no job and in some cases incomplete qualifications.

Congress Recognises:

The need to provide further education opportunities in the face of the ever-changing employment landscape of Ireland.

Congress Mandates:

The President and the Education Officer to lobby the Department of Education and the Higher Education Authority to clearly state, in a national framework, the eligibility of qualified apprentices to progress into relevant degree courses.