Migration Joanne and Ann had a question and answer session. They would like feedback from students who have concerns or queries relating to the move in Sept 2020. The buildings moving over are Cathal Brugha Street, Kevin Street, Rathmines and of course Grangegorman students who are already up in Grangegorman but will be moving to the East Quad. FAQ can be found here. Issues students had regarding move were studios, Student wanted to know if walls are movable, Fine Art students say they need more lecturer space. They have been told that they could be sharing with Law Students, this however is untrue as no such class planning has been planned out yet. It is unlikely that classes will take place in new building before September. It was also suggested that if students would like a tour of the Grangegorman campus before September to contact Joanne and Ann or Trish in the Students union so that this can be arranged. Student Union Referendum The College Officer spoke about the upcoming Referendum, saying an all student vote (Referendum) is taking place on Wednesday 19th and Thursday 20th February on the campus. This vote is on accepting small changes to the Constitution. The changes include changes to College Officer titles to reflect students moving to Grangegorman. Voting is open all day, so please encourage your class to vote. *(And you get free tea and coffee too!) SU Election nominations are also open from 27th February, and elections take place on the 31st March and 1st April. Activist Academy Are you interested in the Environment and Climate Action? A special activist academy is taking place with a panel of guest speakers to talk about taking action as students in response to Climate Change. We've got class speakers like Taz Kelleher from Sustainable fashion Dublin, and Aisling Law from Extinction Rebellion. Details: Taking place in the Courtyard Aungier Street 6-8.30pm Tuesday 25th February Moving to Grangegorman So, management are now looking at compiling a Q+A for students who are moving to Grangegorman. Do you have any questions on the move? E.g. what dates are we moving, what building am I moving in to, will there be nap rooms etc. if you have any questions or concerns can you please email trish.cullen@tudublinsu.ie and she will pass your questions and concerns to the right people. Shag Week SHAG was last week and consisted of a load of fun sexual health related events. Monday there was a free fun play called the kinds of sex you might have in college! Tuesday saw the retrun of our very sexy table quiz in the workmans with very fun hosts and brill prizes. (this could be a great class night out or society event!) Thursday they had a DRAG RACE!!! Also in the workmans club Friday was Valentines day and Chocolate hearts were given around campuses. For more info on all the events you can go onto our facebook and all the links to buy tickets are in your crm agenda email! RAG Taking place in one weeks' time, the SU will be running events all in the name of charity. These night time events will include:

Class Rep Networking Event

We were super excited to pilot this event with very limited spaces to show appreciation to all the Class Reps who have been effectively carrying out their responsibilities in this academic year. This was a fun networking session to meet other Class Reps to share ideas and experiences, play games, have some tasty nibbles and a beverage. The event took place in TOKEN, Smithfield on Wednesday 12th February. Thank you all who attended.

Submission of thesis

Class rep explained how class were to submit thesis at particular date and time, when students arrived to submit thesis nobody what there to take them, this caused a lot of stress amongst students especially one student who travelled from Cork. Luckily this was resolves as the lecturer's colleague was around and was able accept thesis on behalf of lecturer. Student overall felt that this was totally disrespectful to them, the lack of communication and consideration given to students who travelled from far to submit thesis on time. It was advised that class rep also bring this to their next programme committee meeting.

Exam Results

Students think results should be given in a timelier manner and clarified way. Nobody knows exactly dates after Christmas for exam results. All this information should be available online.
