

Dear Student Council,

I'm writing to inform you of the resignations of two of our full-time officers, namely Abbie Nulty (VP for Welfare & Equality, Tallaght Campus) and Niamh Gibbons (VP for Education, Tallaght Campus). Their last day of work is the 11th November 2022. Electoral Commission, under the recommendation of the Executive, have agreed to run a bye-election for these positions in November, alongside the planned Part-Time Officer elections. While the executive is sorry to see Abbie & Niamh go, we are thankful for their conscientious and ceaseless work ethic over the last few months. Should Student Council have any further questions regarding these resignations, the President, Abbie, and/or Niamh will be happy to elaborate on such an update.

Best,

Brian Jordan
