Key Points Since Last Meeting

Príomhphointí ón gcruinniú deireanach

Supplemental Exam Campaign: First campaign of the year, we had a stand for 2 weeks which stocked with Red Bull, Breakfast bars, Pens, Calculators, Copies, Lanyards & Advice! Was successful. Also I got the Qualifier exam fees waived!!

Class Representation Elections: Since students return the TUDSU team have worked collectively to elect class reps as efficiently as possible.

Class Representation Training: Viewed the Westgrove Hotel, Clane, Co.Kildare for an overnight/conference stay. CRT will be on the 8th of November to the 9th of November 2022. Day one is conference style up til 5pm then dinner and a afters. Day 2 half day breakfast & conference style for 2 hours. We have Keynote speakers lined up.

Don't Drop Out, Drop In: DDODI campaign ran for a week starting the 10th of October 2022, This campaign is run to identify the reasons as to why students drop out and offer the appropriate advice to make sure that they make the correct decision when deciding whether they should drop out of college! This campaign can be used as a retention strategy to keep students in college with the correct support offered to them. The campaign itself is run just before the deadline that withdrawal forms need to be submitted so that students can avoid any financial implications.

SUT: Attended SUT in Dundalk DKIT. Attended many workshop including NStEP, Post-grads & Active Consent. Attended Tutor groups. Met a large network of Student union officers.

NDA Motion Write Up: Spoke to Senator Lyn Ruane, created a motion to abolish NDAs in the cases of Sexual Harassment, Bullying and Discrimination. Brought to NC, was 9D, for a welfare working group. To bring up at next NC.
