Wowza! Semester 2 is here. What a rollercoaster semester 1 was but we are ready to roll for semester 2. So far we have raised close to 10 thousand euro for our rag charity and we mostly did that by running events that were all in aid of the charity.

In semester 2 I want to focus on a lot more traditional fundraising and more local on campus activities to achieve that and facilitate more non-alcohol events on campus in the evening to complement our usual evening activities!

Christmas Events:

TU Dublin Christmas Day was one of the highlights of the year so far for sure. It was the first one we have ever ran in TU Dublin in overall it was a great success. It was a particular highlight to go into Wetherspoons at Aungier Street at 7pm and be greeted by literally hundreds of our students. My only regret of the week was that the market I had planned in Lower House didn't happen. I do believe on paper that something like that has the potential to do well but I'll hold my hands up and say I focused on other areas and that suffered as a result.

RAG WEEK:

RAG week takes place the week of the 27th of February. We have a lot planned both on and off campus. Although I'm technically just the City Campus officer it was important for me to make sure that students across all campuses get the same experience, so anything I'm booking in City will also happen in Tallaght and Blanch.

Our daytime activities will be focused on fun and engaging ways to raise money. Across the week on all campuses, we will have a dunk tank where you can donate to throw balls at a target and drop your elected officers into freezing cold water. We will also have other activities around sumo suits, rodeo bulls, inflatables, and a popcorn and candyfloss day. During this week we will also be hosting our TU Dublin Jersey Day that will finish with an epic 90's Night at Racket (Bernard Shaw), we will also have Rock 4 Rag in Workman's, Our RAG Ball in the Academy and A Rag quiz in the woolshed.

Along with that we also have our charity abseil that takes place at the end of April down the generator tower in Smithfield. We are still looking for some students to sign up and take part.

Red Bull Doodle Art:

In early March we will host Red Bull Doodle Art on the Grangegorman campus. Basically, it is a competition where students can doodle and win prizes etc. Red bull will also be on campus for the day giving out free drinks, merch etc.

Student Media Outlet:

I've been working a lot on this over the last couple of months. My plan is to have a clear blueprint for the incoming comms officer on how this can be set up and ran. I've done a lot of research on how other unions and Universities operate theirs. I've had visits with Trinity News and have others schedules over the next couple of months. I've also done some research into the old DIT paper and investigated some printing options.
