Key Points Since Last Meeting

Príomhphointí ón gcruinniú deireanach

Hi everyone! We are coming into elections season and I am hoping that everyone who has put themselves for nomination are so proud of themselves. I was in your shoes this time last year, and I was terrified at the prospect but as I'm well known for now, I am just happy to be here. I am rooting for you all!

Also, huge welcome to Blanch! We are so happy to have the opportunity to host you here in the wild west suburbs! Unfortunately, we lost both a student and lecturer within days of each other in February. As a result, shag week was cancelled in Blanchardstown, as a mark of respect to the student and classmates.

I attended the first faculty board meeting for computing, digital and data with fellow students. I also spoke at an online event hosted by TU Dublin about Academic Integrity and Artificial intelligence. Watch this space for academic integrity awareness week coming soon!

We arranged a meeting with student councillors as promised regarding the 9d motion (TU Dublin Lecturer/Student Review System). Meeting to be held after report submits but I am sure there will be an update issued during the meeting.

The first Governing Body meeting of 2023 takes place on Wednesday 22/02/23, attended by myself, Brian and Jess. We are looking forward to representing students.

As you will see below, plenty of meetings and class addresses/ canteen walks and general chats with students through the month. Any questions, I am happy to answer at any stage. 😊

Louise
