Key Points of work carried out since last meeting

Príomhphointí ón gcrúinniú deireanach

Hi all,

Hope you've had a good month and that you're looking forward to the Christmas Break!!

It's been an eventful month in Dublin and on campus. We hope that everyone is ok after the riots and the ongoing incidents in the central quad.

Over the last few weeks I have taken on the task of overseeing all of our campaigns to ensure that we have a fun and productive semester. This involves meeting regularly with all work areas to help with the planning and logistics off all our upcoming campaigns. The exams campaign, Rainbow Week, Shag Week and Rag week to name a few are well into the planning stage and we are excited for what the 2nd semester brings.

Christmas Week.

It's just beginning as I write this. We had Bingo Loco last night. It was a great time and all that attended had a great time and one even won a trip to Budapest.

The Christmas Market takes place today (Tuesday) and we have a bunch of students taking part and selling their various crafts. I'm really looking forward to it.

Christmas Day takes place on Wednesday. It involves a 12 pubs pub crawl as well as various Christmas dinners. It was my favourite day of the year last year and let's hope for the same this year. We were due to host a night time event from midnight in workman's. After discussion with some uni staff, it was decided to cancel that event and focus on 12 pubs given then events that took place last week. We want to always provide a safe space for our students and this is the best way to do this.

Shave or Dye

This was due to take place the week after the riots. We had some students that didn't feel comfortable coming to campus on the days following and we decided for the sake of everyone taking part to move it to the week of the 11th. Really looking forward to it and we even have some porters shaving their heads haha

Christmas Cards and Prints

As part of our fundraising efforts I designed a series of Christmas Cards to sell in our shop and online store in aid of the Irish cancer society. They took me weeks and I hope you like them haha

12 Days of Christmas

We launched our 12 days of Christmas giveaway yesterday and the uptake so far has been brilliant! We have prizes ranging from a smart tv, xbox, coffee machine, kindle, air fryer and loads more

Relay for life

Next semester we will run a TU Dublin Relay for Life. We are so excited for this and have began planning. The event will take place in April

Couch to 5k

As part of my own fundraising efforts I'm taking part in couch to 5k. It's been a trek during these cold mornings but that's half the fun!!

Sleepout

When I'm presenting this our sleepout will have taken place the following week. 20 students have signed up and I just want to say a huge thanks to all them. We all know how cold it is at the moment
